

Completing tasks, scheduling and staying on track

Smart Apps for your phone or tablet

Calendar apps: An app search for “calendar” on your smart device will reveal many different applications that may be helpful to keep you on track. Many work with the calendar on your phone and send you reminders via your smart device (cell phone or tablet). This may be helpful to remind you of appointments, meetings, dates, worker schedules, weekly tasks (like garbage day), etc.

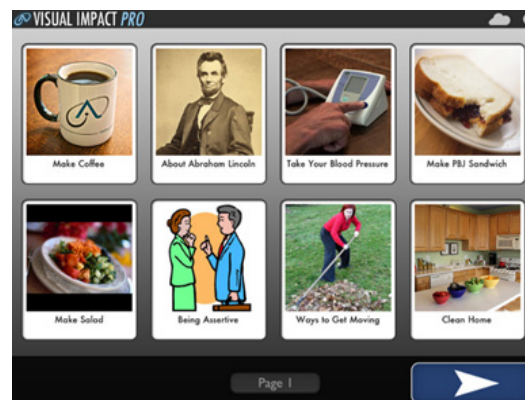

Ai Appliances

Alexa, Google, Amazon Echo are a few of the artificial intelligence units available for consumer purchase. Along with all of the other uses for these products, these smart assistants can also be used to set reminders and track schedules. ($80-200)
